THE TOWNSHIP'S ONLY HOME OWNED NEWSPAPER

Volume 62 — THE TOWNSHIP REGISTER, NILES, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1950 — No. 40

Tareyton Home Construction Still Delayed by Sewers

Construction of 608 homes in the Tareyton Village tract at Decoto this week appeared to be still hopelessly deadlocked.

The Middlefield Company, developers of Tareyton, two weeks ago told the county board of supervisors that negotiations were being proposed to the city of Hayward under which the city would guarantee operation of the sewage plant.

"Such a plan probably would be possible under a set of conditions yet to be identified," Frickland said vaguely. But he stated that the proposal is in the "exploring" stage and that nothing has yet been presented to the city council.

COSTS INCREASE

Township families who three months ago made down-payments on Tareyton Village homes have grown more and more doubtful of their eventual construction. The repeated delays in the company's efforts to secure county approval of the tract, principally of the sewage plan, have aroused belief that the developers are growing less inclined to go ahead with the subdivision.

Increased costs of labor and materials have led to the belief in informed local quarters that if the house were to be built today at prices contracted for three months ago, the subdivision would result in financial loss to the developers.

On June 23 the Middlefield Company began accepting orders and down payments, when four model homes were opened to the public. No approval of the subdivision had been applied for or received from the county planning commission when the sale of the homes started.

Chief objection of county officials to the company's proposed plan of a privately-owned sewage plant has been that, if it were to operate at a financial loss, the eventual burden of operation would fall upon the taxpayers.

A DELAYING ACTION

Last month the planning commission turned the entire matter of approving the subdivision over to the board of supervisors, deciding that the proposed private sewage operation was a matter of county policy rather than of planning.

The Middlefield Company then asked the supervisors for a delay in hearing the matter, stating that negotiations were under way with Hayward.

The indication that "negotiations" with the city are not being pressed gives rise in Washington Township to the expressed opinion that building of the 608 homes will be "indefinitely delayed."

HARRY CESARI, MRS. SLOAN WIN CONTEST AWARDS

Harry Cesari of Niles and Mrs. Elizabeth Sloan of Mission San Jose were last week's prize winners in The Register's "Guess Where" contest.

Cesari was the first to correctly identify the subject of the picture puzzle and its location, telephoning The Register within seconds after the opening time of 9 a.m.

Mrs. Sloan, the township's most widely known historian, won the second prize by being the twentieth person to telephone and correctly identify the picture. Her call came at 12:40 p.m.

Last week's picture proved much easier for the localites who are enjoying the mystery picture contest and most of the contestants who called correctly identified it and its location.

INDIAN CEMETERY

The subject of the picture was the monument inside the Ohlone Cemetery located midway between Irvington and Mission San Jose. The wording on the monument reads, "Here sleep four thousand of the Ohlone Tribe who helped the padres build this Mission San Jose de Guadalupe. Sacred be their memory."

The tabulation of telephone calls received last Friday from persons who correctly identified the picture lists them in the following order:

Harry Cesari, Niles; John Franco, Niles; Manuel Schwartz, Niles; Stoney Mayock, Mission San Jose; Joe Semas, Mission San Jose; Aldina Garcia, Mission; Mrs. Alfred Hirsch, Irvington; Mrs. Alfred Reis, Irvington; Mrs. Odessa Demotte, Centerville; Shirley Kraft, Niles.

Mrs. Bernard Vail, Centerville; Mrs. J. A. Silva, Niles; Mrs. L. M. Robinson, Irvington; Mrs. Henry Rego, Irvington; Florence Faria, Niles; Mrs. Leon Orcutt, Niles; Mrs. Sam Cortez, Niles; Mrs. Walter Sockett, Niles; Betty Rose, Niles; Mrs. Elizabeth Sloan, Mission San Jose; Richard Vargas, Mission San Jose; Mrs. D. Mayer, Irvington; Bill Dutra, Niles; G. E. Scamman, Irvington.

MORE DIFFERENT

This week's picture puzzler is really a puzzler and unless we miss our guess it may well be late Friday afternoon or sometime Monday before 20 correct answers are received.

Study the picture closely—then, when you think you know what it is and where it is located, telephone The Register and give your answer, your name and your mailing address. If you are correct and are either the first or the twentieth to correctly identify the picture you will receive a check of $2.50.

No calls will be accepted until 9 a.m. and all answers must be telephoned to The Register.

IRVINGTON BOY BACK FROM KOREA

A victim of the Korean war, J. C. Gregory, 19, of Irvington, is back in this country again, hospitalized at Letterman in San Francisco.

He arrived in San Francisco Monday, and has paid a visit to his parents ,Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gregory, at their Irvington home.

According to his mother, his condition is not too good as he still has a bullet lodged in him. After being wounded in battle, at the Korean front, he was sent to a hospital in Tokyo. But his condition was such that he had to be sent back home for further treatment. He will have to remain hospitalized for several months.

DECOTO REQUESTS FUNDS FOR THIRD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

The Decoto Elementary School District has filed an application with the state requesting a $670,000 allocation for the reconstruction of the old school, completion of the new Henry Bernard School and the construction of a third school plant.

L. W. Musick, district superintendent, said this week that the need for the third school hinges on whether or not the Tareyton Village tract of 608 homes is cleared by the county for construction.

More than 700 students are now attending classes in the two schools and are, of necessity, using nine classrooms that are "inadequate" in the old building.

The new $230,000 Bernard school opened in mid-September and still needs an additional $150,000 for completion. Yet to be constructed is a multi-purpose room, serving as an auditorium and cafeteria; administration quarters; storage and garage structures; two industrial arts rooms and the minimum landscaping, driveways and surfacing.

Musick said that a site utilization plan, presented to the State Division of School Planning, asks for a $275,000 loan allocation to construct the third nine-room classroom plant.

"It must be remembered, however, that the third school will be contingent upon the completion of the proposed housing project," Musick concluded.

Dedication ceremonies for the Henry Bernard School are yet to be held.

COUNTY OFFICIAL GUEST OF CHAMBER

Captain Green, chief deputy of the County Assessor's office, was the guest speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Decoto Chamber of Commerce. He outlined Proposition No. 1 which will be voted on at the coming election and urged the members present to acquaint themselves with the proposition.

Also present at the meeting were Father McEnery and Father Duggan, who asked that the Chamber back their request that school children be dismissed early one day a week to attend religious training classes. The members gave their enthusiastic backing to the plan.

A motion was made by J. P. Caldeira that Secretary Bernie Joseph write to the Alameda County Water District to obtain information concerning persons living outside the district getting water service.

A letter was also ordered written to the county roadmaster asking that numerous streets in the community be repaired before winter.

It was pointed out that many business houses of the town were not taking an active part in the Chamber and a membership campaign is to be inaugurated.

DISTRICT OFFICERS, WORKERS MUST SIGN ALLEGIANCE OATH

Officers and employees of the various public districts in Washington Township will be required to sign an oath of allegiance as the result of a bill recently passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Earl Warren this week.

The law states that the oath or affirmation, of allegiance must be signed by civil defense workers and public employees.

It further declares that all public employees are civil defense workers, subject to such civilian defense activities as may be assigned to them by their supervisors or by law.

The term "public employees," according to the law, includes all persons employed by the state, county, city, state agency or public district.

The public district category in Washington Township would include such districts as schools, hospital, fire, water and sanitary officials and employees.

The law states that all the civil defense workers, within the first 30 days of employment, take and subscribe to the oath or affirmation. The oath may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and will be filed with an officer designated by the district. No compensation or reimbursement shall be paid any workers unless the oath has been taken.

Persons taking the oath and stating any material matter which he knows to be false is guilty of perjury and is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year or more than 14 years.

The law is summed up with this statement, "This act is an urgency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety."

THE OATH

The oath which the officers and employees must sign is as follows:

"I, ..., do solemnly swear or affirm that I will support and defend the constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California against all enemies, fireign or domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the State of California; that I take this obligation freely and without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter.

"And I do further swear or affirm that I do not advocate, nor am I a member of any party or organization, political or otherwise, that now advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States or of the State of California by force or violence or other unlawful means; that within the five years immediately preceding the taking of this oath or affirmation I have not been a member of any party or organization, political or otherwise, that advocated the overthrow of the government of the United States or of the State of California by force or violence, or other unlawful means."

HEAP BIG CHIEF SMOKE 'M PIPE IN TEPEE . . . Inasmuch as there are no known Indians camped out in Washington Township, it is doubtful if the above picture is what it might resemble, an Indian tepee. Guess correctly what it is and where it is located, then telephone The Register, Niles 3261 or 3271, after 9 a.m. and you may win one of the two cash awards. The first and twentieth persons to telephone and give the right answers will each receive $2,50. —Register Photo

IRVINGTON NAVY MAN ABOARD DAMAGED SHIP

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Woods of Irvington are anxiously awaiting word from their son, Earl C. Woods, who was aboard the U.S.S. Mansfield when it struck a mine in the waters off Korea last Saturday.

The Woods heard the radio broadcast on Monday telling of the navy destroyer being damaged and seven of its crew injured. Their son, an electronics technician third class, has been a member of the crew of the Mansfield since January.

Work Begins on Huge Pipe Plant at Decoto

Construction of the $2,500,000 plant of the U. S. Pipe & Foundry Company on Whipple Road at Decoto will be under way next week, according to R. S. Kiefer, engineer in charge of the project. During the past two weeks 600,000 square feet of ground has been leveled in preparation for building.

Contractors for the structures are the Austin Company, world-wide builders. In all, 14 individual buildings, with a total of 23,000 square feet of floor space, will be erected, according to Engineer Kiefer.

J. C. Vanderlinden is general carpenter foreman on the huge plant. He told The Register this week that approximately 200 men will be employed at the peak of construction.

The 14 buildings will be of steel construction, with corrugated galvanized siding. Completion date is set for July, 1951. Equipment will be installed by the time all the buildings are finished, so that operation of the plant may begin immediately. The pipe company's payroll will be about 150 men.

The new local industry is the first plant of U. S. Pipe & Foundry to be established west of the Mississippi. Home office is East Burlington, New Jersey.

Site of the plant on Whipple Road is 71 acres purchased from the Western Pacific Railroad Company, which last July bought 195 acres adjoining the railroad right-of-way as an industrial tract. The railroad company will lay six spur tracks to serve the pipe company.

One of the nation's major producers of cast iron pipe and culverts, U. S. Pipe and Foundry Company employs 3,700 and has sales offices throughout the United States.

To clear the way for the development, the area was recently rezoned for heavy industry by the Alameda County Planning Commission and the County Board of Supervisors.

PROCLAMATION

The importance of a free press has never been more convincingly demonstrated than in these troubled days. Wherever we turn, we find free institutions under constant challenge by forces of oppression. We have seen examples, in other parts of the world, where the curtailment of a free press has led to the quick destruction of free government. Time and again it has been proven that only when people are fully informed can they recognize and counteract movements which seek to enslave them.

The right to know the truth is an American heritage handed down to us by our foundling fathers. They had firsthand knowledge of the devices of oppressors, and they wisely insisted upon the guarantee of a free press being written into the Constitution of the new Nation they had established.

American editors have fought unceasingly through the years to prevent any encroachment upon our freedom of the press, or upon any of the other basic freedoms which our Constitution guarantees. In this continuing effort they should receive the vigorous support of all who wish to continue to live in a free country.

With these thoughts in mind, I, Earl Warren, Governor of California, do hereby proclaim the period October 1st to 8th, 1950, as NEWSPAPER WEEK in California and I urge that during that period the people of our State become familiar with newspaper services and facilities in their own communities and the importance of a free press in the protection of our form of government.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 27th day of September, A.D., One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty.

(Signed) EARL WARREN
Governor of California

GEORGE BONDE IS NEW SCOUTMASTER

At a special meeting of the Centerville Boy Scout Troop committee, held in the Eagles Nest Friday, Sept. 22, George Bonde Jr. was appointed Scoutmaster.

Orrin Dunbar, who had served well and faithfully as Scoutmaster for the last two years, had to resign due to business.

Bonde, a former Boy Scout in Niles, was introduced to the members of the committee at a meeting September 27, held at the home of Arthur Belshaw, chairman.

There are 28 members in the trop at this time, and it is expected the number should reach 40 at the above mentioned meeting. It was also decided that there should be one activity a month for the Scouts and there should be a closer cooperation between the Scouts and committeemen.

Phil Sousa, neighborhood commsisioner and also advancement chairman for the township, spoke to the boys of the Centerville Elementary school who are eligible to become Scouts on Wednesday, inviting them and their parents to a meeting October 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Eables Nest. At that time the new Scoutmaster will be introduced. Also slides will be shown by Mr. Don McDougal, Scout executive of Southern Alameda County. The slides will be of the Scout Jamboree held at Valley Forge this spring. All Centerville Scouts and their parents are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

COMMUITY CHEST DRIVE UNDER WAY

Although no financial reports are available as yet, Mrs. Stella Benbow, chairman of the Washington Township Community Chest fund drive, said yesterday that the crews of volunteer workers are doing a splendid job in each of the communities.

She stated that preliminary reports show that workers in Newark and Niles have been most active in the first week of the drive and expressed hope that the goal of $7,525 would be reached by the close of the drive.

Mrs. Benbow reported that the Community Chest received approximately $60 from the skating party made possible last week by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clark, who donated the free use of their Maple Hall Rink at Irvington.

PARRY RESIGNS BANK POSITION

Jack Parry, an employee of the Central Bank at Niles since 1938, announced this week that he is leaving the bank—in which he now holds the position of assistant manager—to take a position as office manager of the Berchem Meat Company, operators of a wholesale meat business in Newark.

Parry, a graduate of Washington High, took a position with the bank right after graduation. He served in the war between the years of 1942-46, after which he returned to the bank and was shortly made assistant manager.

His resignation becomes effective November 1.

SCHOOL LOITERERS TO FACE ARREST

The sheriff's department has ordered a crackdown on loiterers on and near school grounds throughout the township.

Deputies said this week that they had been instructed to conduct an "intensive campaign" against all persons found loitering around school yards without written permission from the school principals.

Special attention is to be given Washington Union High School, but all of the nine elementary schools will also be checked regularly.

It was pointed out that the order is a "preventative measure" and not the result of any immediate trouble. It was revealed, however, that some students have been "cutting" classes at their schools to visit friends in other schools.

The deputies said they have been instructed to arrest all persons found loitering around the schools without written permission.

BUILDING PERMITS CONTINUE DECLINE

The number of building permits issued by the Alameda County Building Inspection Department during September revealed a continued decrease from the peak month of July.

In his monthly summary released this week, Marcus S. Carlson, building official, reported that 394 permits with an estimated valuation of $2,310,280 had been issued by his office during September, a considerable decrease from the 460 permits with a valuation of $2,704,560 during August.

NILES POST OFFICE TO CLOSE SUNDAYS

The Niles post office, heretofore opened on Sundays, will be closed from now on, to prevent the pilfering of mail from unlocked mail boxes.

The announcement was made this week by Postmaster Ed Enos, who disclosed that children have been going into the postoffice on Sundays and opening the mail boxes which holders have failed to lock. The result has been that several people, including a Niles business firm, have complained that their mail has been scattered all over the streets. Much of it was, of course, never recovered.

"The last mail for the week-end is at 4:30 p.m. on Saturdays," said Enos, "and by 5 o'clock it is in the boxes. Those who get the mail between five and 6:30 on Saturdays have, therefore, received all the mail for the week. As there is no clerk in the post office at all on Sundays, there is no handling of mail on that day, either by distribution or collection. Thus the closing of the post office will not delay any collection. Those who wish to mail any letters on Sunday may put them in the mail box in front of the post office or across the street from the theater."

CHURCH FUND DRIVE TERMED A SUCCESS

The Centerville Presbyterian Church Building Fund Campagn was terminated Sunday and Chairman Robert Kithcart has announced that the fund-raising drive was a success, although the goal of $10,000 has not as yet been reached.

Kithcart said that there are still some pledges to be turned in, in addition to a few persons that have not been able to contribute due to their absence from home. He said that pledges and cash obtained from these are expected to bring the total amount to the goal figure of $10,000.

He stated that persons willing to contribute but were not contacted, may mail their pledge or contribution to James Logan, chairman of the solicitors committee, P. O. Box 533, Centerville. Checks should be made payable to the Presbyterian Church Building Fund.

The chairman said that there is, however, still a problem facing the buildng committee, mainly the problem of rising costs. To offset this it is hoped that the remaining pledges and contributions will be adequate.

In summarizing the campaign, Kithcart said, "In reviewing the fact that this has been the first known time in the history of this church that a public appeal for funds has ever been made, it is really comforting to realize the kind and gracious attitude of the people of Washington Township toward this program of providing a home for a permanent minister for the Centerville Presbyterian Church."

COIT HARDWARE HAS NEW OWNER

Coit, who has operated the store at 110 North Main Street since April 15, 1915, announced that he had sold the business to W. E. Nielson of Alameda.

Prior to opening his hardware store on Main Street, Coit formerly operated a plumbing shop at the corner of Stevens and Main Streets.

In announcing the sale of the store, Coit stated that he will continue his plumbing business.

The new owner, a veteran of the navy during World War II, has operated a hardware store in Alameda for the past four years. Mr. Nielson said this week that he will close the Alameda store and move the merchandise to his Centerville store.

Mr. and Mrs. Nielson will move to Centerville as soon as housing accommodations can be found.

The newspaper has been called the common man's university.

White tapers and clusters of begonias centered the huge T-shaped table where the officers were seated as guests of the membership at the banquet. Each officer carried a white candle which was lighted during the ceremony by Mrs. Lillian Johnson. Many special guests were present from other parts of California.

The Dental Association is primarily an education group and is composed of national, state and county units devoted to increasing efficiency of dental assistants. The Santa Clara County unit has a membership of 28 dental assistants:

Miss Laughlin has been employed as a dental assistant for Dr. A. M. August of San Jose for over a year.

Groh, under contract with the New York Yankees, had just completed the season with the Grand Forks club at North Dakota as a Centerfielder. He was enroute to the home of his parents in Inglewood when his car went out of control on the wet pavement and crashed into a lumber truck.

MAN'S BODY FOUND ON TRACKS HERE

The body of a man, identified as Einar Carl Malmberg, 44, of Needles, was found at 4:20 a.m. Sunday lying beside the Southern Pacific railroad tracks between Niles and the Niles tower. The body was discovered by the engineer of a passing train.

The body was lying next to the rails of the track and an autopsy revealed that the man had died of a fractured skull and a broken neck.

From papers found on the body police learned that the man had checked out of an Oakland hotel on Wednesday.

Deputy Coroner Ben Murphy wired the chief of police in Needles for information and learned via telegram Tuesday evening that he was a native of Sweden and had no relatives in this country.

An inquest into the mysterious death is to be held at the parlors of the Berge Mortuary Company here next week.

Thinking Things Over . . .

By VIVIAN BATMAN

A very interesting visitor came into our office this week. He was a pet coon.

When he first came scampering in I thought he was a skunk—not being much of a naturalist—and let out a shriek.

His owner came in, however, and quickly explained that, though his name is "Stinky" he is definitely not a skunk.

Stinky darted here and there about the office and the printing shop, nosing into everything. When his owner, Mr. Roy Kiefer, engineer on the big new U. S. Pipe and Foundry plant in Decoto, said "Come on, Stinky, let's go now," Stinky obediently ran to him and followed closely at his heels.

"I found him in the Santa Cruz mountains," explained Mr. Kiefer, "when he was only about two weeks old. He eats everything, he investigates everything, and he petrifies my chickens. But he's an interesting little creature—six months old now—and is as much fun to have around as a dog. Just as intelligent, too."

DOGS ARE SMARTER THAN PEOPLE

And speaking of dogs, I'll have to confess, at last, that dogs are smarter than I am. Dogs are wise to me. They see right through me, in spite of every attempt I make to assert my superiority.

Ever since—many years ago—I read somewhere that a dog will not molest a person unless he expresses fear of the dog, I have been in a state of nerves whenever I walk down the street and a strange dog suddenly appears and regards me with that avid look he might display at the sight of a piece of round steak.

Pride will not let me cross the street and thus avoid the dog. No, I have to go bravely on, saying to myself, "This is nonsense. That dog isn't going to bite, just because he's growling at you. Stop being afraid, and he won't bother you at all."

So I walk up to the dog and say, "Nice dog."

The dog is obviously not open to flattery. He ignores the "nice dog" routine, and growls even more deeply. I have the impulse to break into a sprint, but then he'll know for sure I'm afraid, so I restrain myself and resort to another, even weaker, "Nice dog."

The dog looks at me with scorn, as much to say, "That 'nice dog' stuff isn't getting you anywhere. You're scared to death of me, and I know it."

Why don't modern psychologists work on this problem? There must be SOME way of keeping dogs from knowing you're afraid of them. It doesn't seem right to let the dogs have the upper hand.

New Knitting Club In Centerville

A new knitting club for several young township women was formed last Wednesday night, with Mrs. Robert Dutra (Elaine Lewis) as hostess. The meeting was held at the Fred Lewis home in Centerville.

The club members, who, amazingly enough, really knit instead of spending all of their time talking as is customary in many such clubs, will meet once a month.

Those present at the first meeting included the hostess and Elizabeth King, and Mmes. Frank R. Cardoza, Donald Lemos, Clifford Costa, Clarence Dutra, and Larry Silva.

Unable to attend the first meeting but planning to join the circle were Miss Bernie Francis and Mrs. Manuel Medina.

The evening closed with the serving of refreshments.

Niles Librarian Leaves This Week

Patrons of the Niles library are feeling gloomy this week because Miss Elaine Howe—more popularly known as Ann Howe—is leaving this week-end for Mather Field near Sacramento to accept a position as librarian there.

In the two years that she has been here, Miss Howe has endeared herself to the town's readers by her helpful and cheerful attitude in assisting them to find the books they want.

She has been entertained by many of her friends since the news leaked out that she had resigned. Among these were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brownstein, who took her over to dinner at Rickey's in Palo Alto last Friday, and Mrs. L. R. Batman who gave a handkerchief shower for her last Wednesday.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Chilcote of Irvington were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Leal on Wednesday evening in celebration of the Chilcote's seventh wedding anniversary.

At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dutra and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dutra were entertained at a dinner party last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallmonte of San Francisco.

The christening of baby Merle Anthony Sousa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sousa of Centerville, took place Sunday, September 24, at the Holy Ghost Church in Centerville, with the Rev. Charles O'Connor officiating.

He was christened in the dress worn by his mother and godfather.

Anthony Avilla and Mrs. Elsie Amaral were the baby's godparents.

In honor of the occasion a dinner was held at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Avilla on Fremont Avenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Amaral, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel DeCosta, Miss Beth Longstreet, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Sousa, and Mr. Anthony Avilla.

The afternoon was spent in taking pictures, both movie and stills —by Mr. David Amaral and Mr. Phil Sousa.

Local Girls Graduate From Nursing School

Two township girls— Annette Kirkish and Elizabeth King, both of Centerville—were graduated from the San Jose Hospital School of Nursing last Friday evening at an impressive ceremony performed in the Presbyterian Church in San Jose. Following the ceremony, a reception for the 14 graduates was held in the church parlors.

Annette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kirkish, will work in the San Jose Hospital for a few months and then will continue with her studies in nursing, with the aim of eventually going into public health work.

Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. Ed King, has taken a position in a doctor's office in San Jose.

Both girls are Washington Union High School alumnae.

After the Hunt

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis of Niles have returned home from a two weeks' vacation up in Marble Mountains in Siskiyou County, Mr. Lewis bringing back a nice buck deer with him.

While Mr. Lewis packed in 12 miles to Marble Mountain with six other hunters, Mrs. Lewis stayed at Roxbury Lodge on Scott's River.

Upon their return to Niles they invited several guests in to a venison feed. These included Mr. and Mrs. Ben Courant and family of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cardoza of Hayward, William Holloway of Niles, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosenga and Loretta Rosenga of San Leandro.

The affair was held in the Lewis patio.

Return from Trip to Mexico

Mrs. Ethel Grau and daughter, Betty, are home again after a seven weeks' jaunt into Mexico. Dr. Grau planed down and spent part of the time with them.

"We enjoyed the trip," said Mrs. Grau, "but there was one difficulty. Betty and I drove for miles on the way home without even seeing so much as a service station. And the natives in Mexico think that women driving around the country unescorted are doing a dangerous and unheard of thing."

Although she did a few sketches while down there, they were done under adverse circumstances. "Every time I'd get out my sketching paraphernalia, and set it up, children would seem to appear out of nowhere and start swarming all over the car, and crowding up around us. I suppose we wouldn't have minded so much, except that they were always so dirty."

She went on to say that they had their best time at Acapulco, where Betty enjoyed the dancing and the swimming, "which was simply marvelous."

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BIG SUCCESS

The membership drive being conducted by the Centerville Elementary School P.T.A. has been most successful, according to Mrs. M. D. "Nick" Lewis, president of the local unit.

Last year's enrollment was 200 memberships, which was a new record for the Centerville unit, which received its charter 26 years ago.

Mrs. Warren Gravestock, financial secretary, stated that in all probability this year's enrollment would set a new high.

The Pilgrims brought with them the germ of a free press.

The event occurred at a party following her graduation from the San Jose School of Nursing.

Beth, the daughter of Mrs. Alice King of Fremont Avenue, is also a San Jose State graduate. Bill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Enos Sr. of Irvington, attended the University of California at Davis. Both are W.U.H.S. graduates.

YOU HAVE A LUNCH DATE TOMORROW

Township hostesses who "owe a luncheon" will find the solution to this pressing problem if they take advantage of the turkey luncheon being given by Toyon Branch of Children's Hospital tomorrow (Saturday) at the Old Adobe at the California Nursery.

What better way—and easier—of entertaining than to invite guests to this delightful spot and enjoy a home-cooked turkey luncheon? (and—sh-h-h—it costs you only $1.25 for the complete luncheon.) In addition you will be contributing to a very worthy cause, for the proceeds go, of course, to Children's Hospital.

The lunch starts at noon, and between one and one-thirty, a surprise program will be presented. Mrs. Frank Fields is program chairman, and has arranged something that all of the guests are sure to enjoy.

Ida Paniagua was again the center of attraction when she danced at the Alameda County Fair recently. Although she is just 14 years old and a freshman at Washington High School, Ida has a bright future if she is in constant demand as she has been the past few years. She is one of the few in Alameda County who can put over the Spanish dances. Tomorrow she will dance at the Civic Auditorium in Sunnyvale and Sunday will dance before the Spanish Club at Vacaville. Good luck Ida, we know some day we'll hear more of you and your dancing career.

The local players and their batting averages are: Eddie Delgado .349, John Boliba .360, Don Hitchen .295, Joe Delgado .410, and Louis "Ruth" Pagan, a recent acquisition who is only hitting .184 but is playing like a professional big leager. The pitcher is Pete Servantes who is hitting about .250. Joe Boliba is very interested in the team and hopes to see the boys win the title and come on and play in bigger leagues and make a big name for themselves.

STATE HIGHWAY WORK PROMISED

The Centerville Chamber of Commerce was informed this week by the State Division of Highways that Main Street, from Thornton Avenue to Central Avenue, is soon to take on a new look.

A letter from W. R. Cobb, assistant district engineer, stated that arrangements are being made to stripe the pavement on the highway for four lanes of traffic with a double line down the center. New parking lanes will also be painted.

The letter further stated, "The matter of crosswalks in the business district has been discussed with the constable and in view of the provisions of the California Vehicle Code, which designates the prolongation of the sidewalk area as a crosswalk, and the difficulty of confining pedestrian movements to the marked crossings, it appears that the existing crossings are adequate.

"The interest your organization has shown in matters of traffic safety is appreciated, and if this office can be of further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call."

AFFECT OF MOISTURE ON PLANTS TOLD

An analysis and review of the literature on soil moisture and its relation to plant growth has been prepared by Professors F. J. Veihmeyer and A. H. Hendrickson of the University of California College of Agriculture for the Annual Review of Plant Physiology, 1950.

The thesis that growth rate of plants and their fruits is not affected by the changes in soil moisture unless it is reduced to the permanent wilting percentage has been demonstrated by many workers. This is in accord with the authors' conclusion, substantiated by 30 years of collaboration at the University of California.

Experiments of other investigators with deciduous fruits, dates, citrus, alfalfa, cotton, sugar beets, and watermelons have shown that irrigation before the readily available moisture is exhausted will not increase the size of either plants or fruit.

The same thesis applies to such plants as potatoes, corn, and lettuce—all with sparse root distribution. They only seem to be exceptions because their roots do not thoroughly permeate the soil. Sampling the soil, therefore, may not give a true picture of moisture conditions.

INDIANS INVENTED MANY ARTICLES

One of the few things that the Russians haven't claimed to have invented is that summertime luxury associated with shade and siesta—the hammock.

Most surveyors of ancient culture credit its invention solely to the ingenuity of some pre-historic American Indian.

This is pointed out in a new book, "Early Man in the New World," by Kenneth Macgowan, professor of theater arts on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

A number of other inventions are listed by historians as being unique to the prehistoric peoples of the New World, Macgowan notes.

Among them are the tube of diagonally woven fibers which enabled the lowland Indians of South America to squeeze the poison from the manioc and produce wholesome tapioca; the "air conditioning system" peculiar to kivas (the subterranean religious chamber of the Indian pueblos); the Peruvian whistling jar; the cigar, cigarette and tobacco pipe; the enema syringe; the hollow rubber ball; the toboggan; and possibly snow shoes.

Thus we are indebted to the ingenuity of our early predecessors in America for many items in use today.

The editor of an early Boston newspaper organized public meetings and demonstrations in favor of forming a United States with a Constitution. It is believed that his activities did much to cause Massachusetts to ratify the Constitution.

FIVE NEW MEMBERS FOR SPORTSMEN

Five new members were initiated into the Washington Township Sportsmen's Club at the meeting of that organization held last Thursday evening.

President Ray Bettencourt conducted initiatory ceremonies for George N. Gear, Niles; John A. Feliciano, Mission San Jose; Frank Dias, Irvington; John Wallman, Centerville, and Dino Garlinni.

A report was given on the present work of the installation of targets at the club's new range at Durham Road and Mission Highway. The property was recently purchased by each club member pledging $100 toward the cost of the 25 acres and clubhouse.

Guest of the evening was Deputy Sheriff Petersen, who spoke on the need for a sheriff's reserve here for use in emergencies. He stated that additional applicants are needed from Mission, Irvington, Centerville and Warm Springs.

NEWARK SPORTSMEN SET SHOOT DATE

The members of the Newark Sportsmen's Club, at their meeting held last week at the Youth Center Building, voted to hold their annual pre-Thanksgiving Turkey Shoot on Sunday, Nov. 19.

The event will be held at the club's shooting range on the Dumbarton Road beginning at 9 a.m. and lasting until 5 p.m. Frank Martin was named chairman of the shoot.

Two guest speakers were present at the meeting. They were Bill Case and Eddie Buselack, representatives of District Council No. 3 of the Associated Sportsmen of California.

ENLISTMENTS OPEN IN NATIONAL GUARD

Persons classified as 1-A under the Selective Service System may enlist in the California National Guard and have their order to report for physical examination postponed indefinitely if enlistment takes place before the local draft board orders them to report for physical examination, Major General C. D. O'Sullivan, the adjutant general, said this week.

In order to qualify for postponement, the individual must satisfactorily participate in all required drills and training programs. Evidence of satisfactory performance in a local National Guard unit will be furnished the draft board by the unit commander.

Whenever an enlisted Guardsman ceases to perform satisfactorily in his organized unit, the local board is authorized to terminate his delay or postponement.

General O'Sullivan pointed out that all guardsmen, regardless of their Selective Service status, are subject as reservists to call to active duty by their respective services.

HUSKIES, PUPPIES WIN GRID OPENERS; MEET S. C. TONIGHT

Washington High School Huskies and Puppies won their opening games of the football season on the home field last Friday night by dumping the Poly High School reserve squads from San Francisco.

Both teams will open their Santa Clara Valley Athletic League season tonight at Santa Clara against one of the strongest squads in the conference.

Varsity Coaches Jud Taylor and Clyde Voorhees are very pleased with the initial appearance of their squad and had an opportunity to use 32 men in last Friday's game to look over most of the local talent. Both coaches were quick to praise the hard running backs and the offensive charging and blocking of the linemen.

Two weaknesses were borne out in last week's game, failure to gain ground on end sweeps and the lack of depth for substitutions.

TAKE EARLY LEAD

George Silveira, rangy end, figured strongly in setting up the Huskies first touchdown early in the opening minutes of play. He returned the opening kickoff to the Poly 30-yard line but the Huskies failed to capitalize on that advantage. However, Silveira intercepted a Poly pass in the next series of downs and Halfback Sabe Elizarrey scored the first Washington touchdown of the season two plays later on a reverse.

The try for extra point failed and the score remained at 6-0 for the rest of the first half with neither team seriously threatening to score.

Washington staged a down-field march early in the third quarter with Pagan and Elizarrey doing most of the ball lugging. Ferraris scored on an end sweep. The pass from center on the conversion try was high and Elizarrey ran back some ten yards, scooped up the pigskin and bulldozed his way over for the extra point.

Poly scored their one touchdown of the game in the third quarter on a long pass over the heads of the Washington secondary.

Washington's final touchdown, in the fourth quarter, climaxed a 40-yard march with Elizarrey scoring on a reverse. Salvador kicked the extra point, and the score stood 20-7 at the final gun.

PUPPIES THRILL FANS

The Washington Puppies, famed for their razzle-dazzle deception and long runs, held true to form last Friday and provided fans with a thrilling 18 to 6 victory.

Coach Irv Hird's lightweights scored on the second play of the game with "Coco" Rivera sprinting 52 yards for a touchdown.

Little Joey Orrochi, sprint champion of Northern California, outran the Poly team late in the second quarter for a 58-yard touchdown dash.

The third Washington score came in the second half with Jim Bolivia snagging a pass and lateraling to Rivera who galloped into the end zone.

The sole Poly score resulted from a blocked kick on the 20-yard line and a series of line-smashes.

LIGHTWEIGHT FIVES ADD TO VICTORIES

The Washington High School "C" basketball squad continued their string of victories during the past week but the "D" squad lost their first game in three starts.

Last Thursday the C's nosed out San Leandro 23 to 22 in a close fought game that see-sawed with neither team able to hold more than a three-point lead at any point. The D's had less difficulty and scored an easy 33 to 14 win.

Playing on their home court Tuesday, Coach Don Wolfe's lads split their double-header against Hayward with the C's winning 23 to 16 and the D's bowing to a 30 to 16 defeat.

Both squads opened their Santa Clara Athletic League play last night (Thursday) at Santa Clara but results of the games were not available as we went to press.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

ON SICK LIST

Mrs. Teddy Pereira has been on the sick list for nearly a week. She is suffering with a very bad cold and, to top it all, her darned asthma has been giving her fits, but we are glad now to see her around a little more than usual.

AUXILIARY HOSTESSES

The Mission Firemen's Auxiliary were hostesses to the Irvington Auxiliary last Friday evening at the Mission Grammar School where they played pirate bingo for entertainment. If you have never played it, ask some of those who attended how it is done and how much fun it was. The tables were formed in a T with long paper tablecloths covered with autumn leaves of gold, yellow and brown, while all accessories were to match. Long orange tapers in star holders were on each table. A huge cake in autumn colors and saying "Welcome Irvington Auxiliary" was in the center of the table. Mary Rodrigues and Lena Solon were on the food committee and served hot stuffed rolls, cake and coffee, while Teenie Alberts and Kathleen Amaral were the ones who were responsible for the lovely table arrangements. A special meeting of the club will be held on Friday evening to make plans for a whist party in the very near future.

VISITS OLD FRIENDS

Mr. Henry Brown, formerly of Benecia, brother of our Manuel Brown here in town, spent Wednesday visiting old friends and the Brown family.

EVENTS PLANNED

The Catholic Daughters of the Mission Parish met last week and heard reports of the success of their traveling basket, which netted them enough to get their dishes. They are making a campaign among the members to see if they can get enough silverware to have on hand for their parties and social meetings. October 8, the members will go to the church for their quarterly communion, while October 9 is the next meeting date and since the hall in the old Mission is still under repair, they will meet at the home of Anna Mae Campagna. They are having a cooked food and pastry sale in front of the fire house in Mission San Jose on Saturday, October 4, from 10 a.m. on, with Anna Mae Campagna as chairman. On October 23 a social meeting will be held at Vivian Escobar's lovely new home on the Livermore Canyon Road. The public is invited to attend the pastry sale and help the gals fill their treasury, getting ready for their Christmas activities.

SEEING THE SIGHTS

Joe and Margie Reis and their children, Joanne and Marvin, motored to Monterey Sunday where they enjoyed a fine sea food dinner at the wharf and then on to San Juan Baptista where they looked through the town and the Mission which has been preserved very well.

LAKEPORT VISITORS

Diane and Michael Santos of Lakeport spent several days here in the Mission at the home of "Nana" and Glenn Bottenberg, with Greatgrandmother Wilcox being "baby sitter" while the rest worked. On Sunday their folks Tom and Ruth Santos, who had been deer hunting in Lassen County, came down for dinner and to take the kiddies back home. Colleen and "Bud" Justus, Gary, who was one year old on Monday, and sister Cynthia Gail, of El Cerrito, were also Sunday dinner guests.

ELECT OFFICERS

The Mission Youth Center met for its reorganization meeting on Tuesday evening at their club house in the Cunha garage on Ellsworth and discussed plans for future meetings as well as held their annual election of officers. Charles Schneider replaces Cappy Cunha as president, Stanley Caires will be the vice-president for the coming year, while Evelyn Chambers will do the secretary's work, replacing Beverly Chambers, who will handle the funds of the club as the new treasurer replacing Donald Meyers. There will be another meeting on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, to install the new officers and to appoint a program chairman and make plans for the Halloween party. All those interested in belonging try and reserve that date for your appearance at the Youth Center.

BAD LUCK

Little Bobbie McGowan seems always to be the one to hit bad luck at all the parties. Charles Jones, their teacher, took the gang to Hayward Plunge and playground last Saturday, and while there Bobbie fell and cut her hand so badly that five stitches had to be taken.

The FARMERS CORNER

by Ralph H. Taylor
Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

SACRAMENTO STORY

The tone of tenseness that marked the opening of the special session of the Legislature was well conveyed in a dispatch by one of the San Francisco political writers who wrote:

"There is something extraordinary about this meeting. . . Something unlike lawmaking as usual. A sense of alarm in our time, of danger stalking our suburbs, permeates the Capitol corridors. Tip off to what is novel lies in the very subjects on which the legislators are trying to fashion laws: Sabotage, civil defense, control of explosives, registration of subversives, 'little FBI' crew in the attorney general's office."

All eyes indeed were on Sacramento during the short special session—for the anxiety in the Capitol was concentrated expression of the anxiety of the state's people.

ISSUE OF COMMUNISTS

The problems of control—and of exposure—of Communists in California by far was the most dramatic and interest-compelling issue at stake. With only a handful of exceptions, the tempers of the legislators in this respect were strict and harsh. Passage of stringent Communist-control, espionage, and sabotage laws was but a reflection of the stern mood of the state's lawmakers who refused to be sidetracked by the usual confusion tactics of the opposition.

The loyalty oath issue was argued pro and con, but there was no quibbling on the part of the great majority over the basic issue of voting the measure—it was voted overwhelmingly. A strong point of logic advanced by proponents of the oath was that false swearing would at least make Communists, if and when exposed, guilty of the crime of perjury, whereas the Communist party membership in itself is not legally a crime.

There seems room for honest difference among the most intelligent of men on many complex issues of these difficult and fast-moving times. On the issue of Communism, however, there can be no compromise with the stern reality of national danger.

THE SHADOW OF KOREA

Even on issues which ordinarily would be purely domestic in scope the uncertainties of the war situation had impact. A striking indication of this was in debate on whether to legalize immediate expenditure of the entire $250,000,000 school building bond issue to alleviate the classroom space shortage, or to continue apportionment at the rate of $5,000,000 a month.

Here, legislators of good intent were at opposite poles of opinion. Proponents pointed to rising building costs and a probable dwindling in building materials in arguing for urgency in action. There is little doubt that educators, favoring the build-now side were spurred in part by fear of the ballot measure, Proposition No. 1, which if passed would kill the personal property tax and so deprive school districts of the large revenues they now receive from this tax. Here, on a basic issue of anxious urgency versus prudence and economy, were involved imponderables that were beyond clear and exact judgment of men not gifted with prophetic powers.

Although all of us, lawmakers and laymen, are trying to see through darkened mists, with the shadow of Korea lying across our nation, it is comforting indeed that our lawmakers sensibly nailed down Communism and Communists as clearly alien and dangerous to our national security, while they did not refuse to accept responsibility to solve as best they could one of the difficult economic problems affecting our schools.

FRYER GROWERS MEETING IN HAYWARD OCT. 11
